

JESUS PROMISES TO STRENGTHEN, HELP, AND UPHOLD US.

“ I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”

John 16:33

Jesus Overcomes - John 16:33

Lord, as we focus on your power to overcome death, may hearts be moved and changed to claim that promise for the next generation to know your power is available in every situation. May they trust you to strengthen them and uphold them. In Jesus name, keep us focused on your resurrection power now more than ever Jesus. Amen

The Travelers Psalm - Psalm 121

Oh Lord I pray no harm would befall one of those traveling. I pray a shield of protection physically and mentally. I pray strength for our young adults to walk away from potentially harmful situations. I pray the young man would be honorable and the young women would be wise and cautious. Stir their hearts away from the snares of the deceiver. I pray rest and refreshment for those seeking you, Lord. In Jesus name.

God is Greater - 1 Peter 2:24

I pray for our students, the next generation, and our university leadership to know the truth and the promise that God is greater than any: fear, anxiety, worry, sorrow, loneliness, lies of the world, trouble. God is greater than the enemy that is seeking to devour, derail and distract. Oh Lord, may they dive into the truth that, it is finished, because You have overcome and defeated the enemy. It is by Your wounds that we are healed. (1 Peter 2:24). May the revival of their souls continue to burn and draw them to a deeper dependence on You. Praise that You have overcome the world. (John 16:33). Thank you, Jesus. Amen.

Persistence in Prayer - Ephesians 6:18

Heavenly father may each one who steps onto our campus lift their eyes and look to you. May each day be one where they seek glory in the presence of who you are in their lives and to seek you and know the plans that you have for each walking with you to finish each day well, lord. And father, may we never give up on praying. I ask you to comfort the Mama who has stopped asking for the Unanswered answered prayer. Lord, may you find us persisting as we continue to pray with all prayers on all occasions trusting Jesus the one who overcame for us. Amen

Abide - John 15:4

His words. His truth. Jesus says that apart from Him we can do nothing. Father may our next generation desire attachment to the only One who promises to be there always in all ways. Oh God, that they would cut the ties of the things that keep them apart from you. We seek you Father to remove the weeds in their hearts and plant the seeds that will bear much fruit. Thank you, Jesus, for being The Way. Amen.

Praise in the Storm - Psalm 92:1

Oh Lord, there is nothing more powerful than pouring out praises to you. I pray (names) and our next generation would delight in you and your promises, Father. I pray when the trials of the day occur, the seeds of comparison come upon them, the enemy's weapon of discouragement and despair fall on them, oh Lord. Help them to openly lift their eyes to You and offer a song of praise in place of grumbling and complaining. I pray for a generation filled with thanks offerings, generosity of their time, listening ears and compassionate hearts to those around them. Stir them, Holy Spirit, to lift their eyes off their "selfies" and focus on lifting, admonishing, and glorifying. Oh, that they would know when Praise is on our lips the enemy retreats. We overcome with songs of praise and thanksgiving. "It is good to give thanks to the Lord, And to sing praises to your Name, O Most High." (Ps. 92:1) Jesus, only Jesus. Amen.

In This World You Will Have Trouble - John 16:33

We continue to march on this month with our focus verse from John 16:33. Tonight, as I was marinating on this verse, I was set on, "in this world you will have trouble." I started thinking of all the "trouble" Jesus walked through for us. The scorn, hatred, condemnation, physical abuse, spitting, cursing, mockery and the most horrific undignified death of anyone. And yes, in this world our students and the next generation will carry some heavy burdens, they will be mocked and scorned, they may face false accusations, hurts and hard days. "Lord, today, I pray (names) , and our next generation, when faced with the unpleasant things of this world, will have the strength to carry the load, to bear the burden, and to lean into and depend on You, Jesus. I pray they will speak of you, study you, desire to be like you so when the trials come, they will remember all you walked through before us. Oh Lord, may it serve as a power-filled reminder that You will strengthen and uphold. May all that you walked through for us give them the desire to overcome and walk in Your ways, Jesus. Oh, these days prepare all our hearts as we remember the resurrection and the promise of Your return. May not one of ours fall away. Jesus, may those who have wandered come running back and draw near to you. Use each one who is yours to share the good news like never before. Oh Jesus, we come in your mighty name. Amen"

Spiritual Battle - Ephesians 3:16

"I pray out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being."

We can pray this verse over our children and the next generation. Over those fighting to clear the rubble, and who are suffering in Mississippi, Turkey, the Ukraine, and Russia. The emotional grief and trauma in Nashville. We can pray this verse over those battling illness, anxiety, and grief. I pray this over each of us, pressing in for those who need the reminder today, that Jesus faced all of it, and overcame the world for us. (John 16:33). Don't give into the enemy's desire to put us in a corner of fear. Instead, fight with every weapon and promise given us in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen
